Important Information

Duty of Disclosure

Before you enter into an insurance contract, you have a duty to tell us anything that you know, or could reasonably be expected to know, may affect our decision to insure you and on what terms.

You have this duty until we agree to insure you.

You have the same duty before you renew, extend, vary or reinstate an insurance contract.

What you do not need to tell us

You do not need to tell us anything that:

- reduces the risk we insure you for; or
- is common knowledge; or
- we know or should know as an insurer; or
- we waive your duty to tell us about.

If you do not tell us something

If you do not tell us anything you are required to, we may cancel your contract or reduce the amount we will pay you if you make a claim, or both.

If your failure to tell us is fraudulent, we may refuse to pay a claim and treat the contract as if it never existed.

If you are a natural person, a different duty of disclosure to the one set out above applies to you.

Please contact us so that you can be informed of the duty of disclosure that applies to you.

Claims Made

This Proposal is for a policy issued by Chubb Insurance Australia Limited ('Chubb') on a claims made and notified basis. This means that the policy only covers claims first made against you during the insurance period and notified to Chubb in writing during the insurance period. The policy does not provide cover for any claims made against you during the insurance period if at any time prior to the commencement of the insurance period you were aware of facts which might give rise to those claims being made against you.

Section 40(3) of the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 provides that where the insured gives notice in writing to the insurer during the insurance period of facts that might give rise to a claim against the insured, the insurer cannot refuse to pay a claim which arises out of those facts, by reason only that the claim is made after the insurance period has expired.

Alteration of risk and deregistration

The policy requires you to notify the insurer within thirty days of any material change in the nature of the professional business, or any act of insolvency or bankruptcy of the insured. The policy requires you to give immediate notice of the cancellation, suspension, termination or imposition of conditions in respect of the insured's statutory registration. Claims arising following the cancellation, suspension or termination of the insured's statutory registration are excluded from indemnity under the policy.
