Your Duty to Take Reasonable Care not to Make a Misrepresentation

Your application for insurance cover will be treated as if You are applying for a 'consumer insurance contract'. Before the contract of insurance is entered into, You have a legal duty to take reasonable care not to make a misrepresentation to the insurer under the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 (Cth). It is very important that You comply with Your duty, as this may impact on Your insurance cover.

A misrepresentation is an answer or statement that is not true, only partially true, or does not fairly reflect the truth.

When You apply for insurance, We will ask You clear and specific questions that are relevant to Our decision to insure You. Your answers in response to Our questions are important as we use them to determine whether We can provide insurance cover to You, and if so, the terms of the Policy and the Premium We will charge. This means that when answering Our questions, You should respond fully, honestly and accurately.

The duty to take reasonable care not to make a misrepresentation applies anytime You answer Our questions as a part of an initial insurance application, when extending or making changes to an existing insurance, and reinstating any previous contract of insurance.

We may later investigate the answers You provide to Us, for example, when a claim is made.

Guidance for answering Our questions:

Important: please ensure that You take care when providing Your answers in response to Our questions in relation to Your insurance application. You should respond fully, honestly and accurately. If You do not, it may affect Your insurance cover.

When answering Our questions, please:

- Think carefully about Your responses. If You do not understand the question or require further explanation, please ask Us before responding;
- Make sure Your responses are truthful, accurate and complete answers to every question that We ask You;
- Provide Us with all relevant information in response to Our questions. If You are unsure what information to include, please include it or check with Us, Your broker or adviser;
- Do not assume that We will contact anyone else for the information we are asking You for;
- Review each answer You have provided on Your insurance application carefully and make any corrections (if necessary) before submitting it to Us. You are responsible for the answers that You provide us, even if You have had help in preparing Your application, for example from Your broker, intermediary, advisor or someone else.

Before Your insurance cover starts, please tell Us of any changes that may be required to the answers You have given to Our questions. This may save time as any changes may require further investigation or assessment of the risk.

If, after Your insurance cover starts, You think You may not have complied with Your duty, please contact Us, Your broker or advisor immediately and We will let You know whether it has any impact on Your cover.

We may contact You after You have submitted Your application to clarify or collect any information that You may not have included. The information You provide may be recorded and used by Us in assessing Your application. Your duty to take reasonable care not to make a misrepresentation applies to all types of communication with Us, including written, electronic, online, when speaking with Us in person or on the telephone, or a mix of these.

If You do not comply with Your duty

If You do not take reasonable care not to make a misrepresentation, it may have serious consequences for Your insurance. If You have failed to comply with Your duty, We have certain rights, which may depend on what Your insurance offer may have been had You not made a misrepresentation, and whether or not the misrepresentation was fraudulent. We have different actions available to Us, for example, We may do one of the following:

- Avoid Your insurance cover. This means that Your insurance contract and cover will be treated as if it never existed;
- Change the amount of cover, for example the level of cover may be reduced;
- Change the terms of Your insurance contract, for example certain events may be excluded from being covered.

This may mean an insurance claim may not be paid, or the amount or benefit paid may be reduced, or Premiums increased.

If We suspect that you may have breached Your duty to take reasonable care not to make a misrepresentation, before We exercise any of the actions available to Us, We will:

- Explain Our reasons why We believe You have breached Your duty; and
- Provide You with an opportunity to respond and provide Us with further information.

If We decide to make changes to Your cover, We will notify You of Our decision and provide You with the review process and complaints procedure to follow if You disagree with Our decision.

If you need help

It is very important that You understand this information, the questions that We ask You and Your duty. If You are having difficulty for any reason, such as a disability, English language, or require further support such as a support person You trust, please contact Us so that We may tell You how We may assist in providing additional support.

If you have any questions, please contact Us, Your broker or advisor.

How to make a Claim

The Insured and/or Insured Person must notify Corporate Services Network (“CSN”) in writing within thirty (30) days of an event that is likely to give rise to a claim. A failure to furnish CSN with notice within the time provided in the Policy will not invalidate any claim but We may reduce Our liability under the Policy to the extent to which We have suffered any prejudice due to such failure.

Once notified of a claim, CSN will provide the Insured and/or Insured Person with claim forms which must be fully completed and return the claim forms to CSN together with such other information and documentation that We or CSN require in order to consider the claim. This information can include health certificates, medical practitioners’ reports, employer reports and related evidence of the claim.

Waiting Periods do apply to some benefits provided by the Policy. The Waiting Period is a period which no benefits are payable under the Policy and it commences on the day medical treatment is first sought by the Insured Person for the Injury which is the subject of the claim. The Waiting Period for the insurance is described in the Policy Schedule.

You can notify an event and/or claim by sending notice to:

All cover is subject to the payment of Premium and the terms, conditions, exclusions and provisions of this Policy.

The Premium payable by the Insured will be shown on the Policy Schedule. The Premium is calculated taking into consideration a number of risk factors including the number of Employees covered by the Policy, the sums insured and the Insured’s previous insurance history.

Premiums are subject to government charges, taxes and levies where applicable. They can include GST, stamp duty, and any other charges.

Other costs, fees and charges

A policy fee may be charged by Solution Underwriting for administration and compliance costs associated with Solution Underwriting’s role in the distribution of this product. This policy fee is in addition to the Premium and is noted separately in the tax invoice issued. The policy fee is not refundable in the event of cancellation unless the Policy is cancelled within the cooling-off period or is a full-term cancellation. For details of the policy fee payable, please refer to the Financial Services Guide or contact Solution Underwriting directly.

Non-Payment of Premium

If the Insured fails to pay the Premium by the due date or within 120 days of inception of the Policy, or if the payment method is dishonoured and therefore We have not received the payment by the due date, We will have the right to cancel the Policy. Unless We tell the Insured, any payment reminder We send does not change the expiry of the cover or the due date of the Premium.

Renewal Procedure

Before this Policy expires, We will advise the Insured whether We intend to offer renewal and if so on what terms. It is important to check the terms of any renewal before renewing to ensure that the details are correct.

Updating this Policy

We will not make any material change to the Policy after the start of the Period of Insurance. Where a change is made to the Policy We will issue the Insured with new Policy Documents or other compliant document to update the relevant information except in limited cases. Each electronic communication will be deemed to be received by the Insured twenty-four (24) hours after it leaves Solution Underwriting's information system. If the Insured does not tell Solution Underwriting to send the Policy documents electronically, the Policy documents will be sent to the mailing address that the Insured has provided.

The following taxation information is only a guide. Your individual circumstances will be important to and may affect the tax treatment of any premiums You pay or benefits You receive. You should consult Your tax adviser regarding Your individual circumstances.

Income Tax

Generally, if You are entitled to receive weekly benefits, the Premium You pay may be tax deductible. Premiums may also be tax deductible if You have taken out Your policy for a revenue purpose.

Generally, if You receive weekly benefits, these benefits may be assessable to You and subject to tax at Your marginal income tax rate. However, lump sum amounts that You receive are generally not taxable.

Pay As You Go Withholding Taxes ('PAYGW') may be withheld from any payments to You deemed to be taxable income in Your hands.

Goods and Services Tax

Generally, You will not be required to pay Goods and Services Tax (GST) on any benefits You receive under Your policy. However, You must advise Us if You are entitled to claim an input tax credit in relation to any GST payable on Your Premium and the extent of that entitlement. If You do not provide this information to Us, You may be liable to pay an amount of GST on benefits You receive.

If You are registered for GST, any payment We make may be reduced by the amount of any input tax credit You or another person are entitled to for those expenses.
